

FEEDING PUBLIC POLICIES

international seminar on local public policies for food sovereignty

16 and 17 November. Hotel Olarain, Paseo de Ondarreta, 24. Donostia-San Sebastián

16 NOVEMBER

9:30 -10:00 Registration

10:00-10:30 Opening Remarks: Why public policies for food sovereignty? • Alazne Intxauspe, Etxalde • Saioa Iraola, Charter for Social Rights of the Basque Country

10:30-11:00 Welcome Address (Representative from the Basque Agency of Development Cooperation and the European Cultural Capital- Donostia 2016)

11:00-11:45 Keynote Presentation: Food as a right: Current situation and future challenges • MEP José Bove, European Green Party

11:45 Questions and Comments

12:00-12:30 Coffee Break

12:30 -14:30 Panel: CONTENTS of Public Policies for Food Sovereignty:

a) Access to land and the means of production for incorporating youth into agroecology • Franco Lobera, Red Terrae. Spanish State

b) How can public policies encourage the participation of rural women in agroecology? • Michela Katuscia Calaça, Movimento de Mulheres Camponesas MMC. Brasil

Related experiences:

a) Food sovereignty as a driver for regional development • Carlotta Ebbreo, Madonia Resiliente. Sicily, Italy

b) School food programs as an education tool • Nieves Alcalá, Ministry of Education and Universities of the government of the Canary Islands

14:30-15:30 Lunch

15:30 -17:30 PANEL: PROCESSES for to promote and build public policies for food sovereignty:

16 NOVEMBER

a) Urban food policies and the relationship with the peasant agenda • Ana Moragues, University of Cardiff. UK

b) Proposals of integrated territorial development for food sovereignty • Helen Nilsson, Department of Environment for the Municipality of Malmo. Sweden
Related Experiences:

a) Mechanisms for citizen participation in defining food policy: food councils • Joy Carey, Member of the Bristol Food Council. United Kingdom (Video-message)

b) Convergence of social struggles in developing social policies in urban areas • Deirdre Woods, CFGN Community Food Growers Network/Just Space, Community-led Plan for London. United Kingdom

c) Development of new technologies as a vehicle for defining participatory public policies • Immanol Esnaola, Gaindegia. Basque Country

d) Right to food as a driver to develop public policies • Joseba Otondo, Baztango Zaporeak. Basque Country

17:30-18:00 Coffee Break

18:00- 19:00 Working Groups- Part 1

a) Access to land and the commons

b) Public policies, education and food

c) Urban food policies from a territorial perspective

c) Local public policies for the development of agroecology

19:00- 19:30 Closing

17 NOVEMBER

10:00-10:30 Welcome and summary of the previous day (ECVC/Etxalde/Bizilur)

10:30-12:30 PANEL: IMPACTS of public policies: Transformations we seek in food matters

a) Transforming the economy through food: Food sovereignty from the mapping of social and solidarity economy • Arnau Pujol, Laurant Barcelona. Catalonia

b) Relation between local and global governance: The experience of the Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure of Land, Fisheries and Forests- instruments and main challenges • Daniel Gómez, FIAN International

c) Connecting food with other sectors • Ivan del Caz, Network of municipalities for the commons. Basque Country

Related experiences

a) Monitoring and using the Tenure Guidelines for civil society and social movements • Kaya Thomas, Abl. Germany

b) Constructing comprehensive food policy: proposals from the fisheries sector • Leo Belaustegi, LAB. Basque Country (Video message)

c) Interlacing sovereignties. The experience of the municipality of Navas in integrating food sovereignty with energy sovereignty • Jaume Casals, Navas mayor. Catalonia

12:30-12:45 Coffee Break

12:45-14:30 PANEL: EDUCATION POLICIES for constructing food sovereignty

a) Research as a space to generate critical approaches and social activism • Jenny Franco, Transnational Institute (TNI). Netherlands

b) Training and research processes from peasant movements • Janaina Stronzake, Movimento Sin Terra (MST). Brasil

c) Linking international networks to promote education on food sovereignty and agroecology • Rupert

17 NOVEMBER

Dunn, European Network of Learning and Teaching for Agroecology, European Coordination Via Campesina, University of Coventry. Wales

14:30-15:30 Lunch

15:30-17:00 Linked experiences

a) Educational experiences promoted by the peasant movement. "Baserritik Mundura" university degree in agroecology and food sovereignty • Bea Casado, Institute for Development and International Cooperation Studies -HEGOA (Basque Country)

Development of educational public policies for the recognition of farmers' knowledge • National Peasant and Indigenous Movement (MNCI). Argentina

c) Agroecology Institute in Latin America "Seeding Hopes", IALA. • Viviana Catrileo, coordinator IALA Anamuri. Chile

17:00-17:30 Coffee Break

17:30 -19:00 Working Groups – Part 2

a) Access to land and the commons

b) Public policies, education and food

c) Urban food policies from a territorial perspective

c) Local public policies for the development of agroecology

19:00-19:30 Conclusions and closure of the seminar

